Newsletter –15th July 2016 No: 36

Each week, we have a whole school 'theme of the week' based upon the Sunday Gospel. This helps bring Gospel Values alive for our children.

The theme next week is:

Getting our priorities right

MONDAY LITURGY INVITATION

Every Monday morning, our school family begins its week by worshipping and praying together at 9am in the hall. Now that our hall is larger, we would be delighted if parents would like to join us.

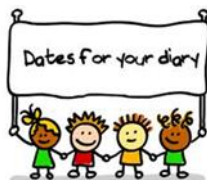

The liturgy usually lasts 20 minutes and takes place each week. There is no need to book, just turn up.

We hope that you can join us.

Mrs Rhodes is retiring on Thursday 21st July after being with us for 22 years!

To celebrate and to say thank you for all that she has done for our school, we thought it would be a nice idea for us all to dress in multi/Fijian dress for the day.

Please could we ask that you also donate £1.00 and this will be given to HCPT (a charity, Mrs Rhodes works for) as a farewell thank you from Mrs Rhodes.

We will all miss you terribly, Mrs Rhodes - but we wish you well for your future.

WELCOME BACK YEAR 4!

Year 4 arrived back from Foxcove this week after their camping residential. It was quiet without them, but we are assured they all had a fantastic time.

Thank you to all the staff: Mrs Griffiths, Mrs Rhodes, Mrs Phillips and Mrs Kirk and to all the parent volunteers for helping to make the camp happen. We are blessed you are in our school family

YEAR 6 VISIT TO PARLIAMENT.

Today our year sixes, together with children from our Federated school, The Cathedral School of St Mary, have travelled to London to take a tour of the Houses of Parliament and learn how to use their voice in social change.

Many, many thanks to the staff who have given up their time and for being up at 4.30am this morning in order to enable this to happen.

Parents - please remember to collect the children from 9.30pm. No child will be allowed to walk home alone. If we are delayed for any reason, we will text you to let you know.

Thank you for all your support and have a great weekend,

Mr Cotter and Mrs England
